Dear Mr Hawkins,

Re: Inquiry into Liquidators and Administrators

Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board Limited (APESB) welcomes the opportunity to make a submission to the Inquiry into Liquidators and Administrators by the Senate Standing Committee on Economics.

Background to APESB

APESB was established in February 2006 as an initiative of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (ICAA) and CPA Australia. In November 2006, the National Institute of Accountants (NIA) was admitted to the APESB. APESB is an independent standard setter with the primary objective of developing and issuing, in the public interest, appropriate professional and ethical standards which apply to the membership of the three Australian professional accounting bodies. A secondary objective of the APESB is to provide the opportunity or forum for the discussion and consideration of issues relating to professional standards for accountants.

APESB has issued the Code of Ethics that all professional accountants in Australia must abide by as well as professional standards in specialist areas such as Valuation Services, Forensic Accounting, Taxation Services and Insolvency Services.

Standards applicable for professional accountants engaged in insolvency services

APESB issued APES 330 Insolvency Services (APES 330) in September 2009. This professional standard was developed over an 18 month period and mandates the professional and ethical obligations of members of the three Australian professional accounting bodies who conduct insolvency services.

APES 330 is effective for insolvency services commencing on or after 1 April 2010 with early adoption permitted. APES 330 will replace the existing APS 7 Statement of Insolvency Standards which was originally issued by the accounting profession in March 1984 (subsequently revised in 1989 and 1998). Members of the three Australian professional accounting bodies must comply with APES 330 from 1 April 2010 when they undertake roles as liquidators or administrators. Failure by members to do so will make them subject to the disciplinary procedures of the applicable body.

During the development phase of APES 330, APESB worked collaboratively with the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia (IPA) to ensure that the principles of APES 330 are consistent with the principles in the IPA's Code of Professional Practice.

APES 330 addresses the following key areas which will be of interest to your Inquiry:

- the fundamental responsibilities of members which include public interest obligations and professional obligations relating to professional competence and due care, confidentiality and marketing (Section 3);
- the critical importance of professional independence of liquidators and administrators (Section 4);
- dealing with property and other assets (Sections 6)
- expert witness obligations (Section 7);
- professional fees and expenses (Section 8); and
- Documentation and quality control (Section 9).

We have included the following information for the Inquiry's consideration:

- Appendix A – A brief overview of APES 330 Insolvency Services; and
- Appendix B – APES 330 Insolvency Services.

If you would like to discuss APES 330 further or require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me or Channa Wijesinghe, Technical Director on (03) 9642 4372 or email at channa.wijesinghe@apesb.org.au.

Yours sincerely

Chairperson

A brief overview of APES 330 Insolvency Services

Scope of APES 330

APES 330 mandates the professional and ethical obligations of members of the three Australian professional accounting bodies (ICAA, CPA Australia and NIA) who undertake insolvency services. The scope of the standard includes appointments undertaken as a liquidator or administrator (excluding members' voluntary liquidations) under the Corporations Act 2001, the Bankruptcy Act 1966, or any other similar legislation.

Fundamental responsibilities

The fundamental responsibilities of members relating to public interest, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and marketing have been substantially revised from the existing APS 7 in line with APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (APES 110). By way of background APES 110 is based on the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants prepared by the International Ethics Standards Board of Accountants of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC Code). In substance APES 330 has similar requirements and guidance to the IFAC Code.

The fundamental responsibilities of a member conducting insolvency services include:

- The overriding public interest obligations of the member;
- An assessment whether the member has adequate capacity and resources;
- Seeking appropriate expert advice when required;
- Confidentiality requirements; and
- Prohibitions in respect of marketing the member's services when placing statutory advertisements.

Professional independence

Professional independence requirements for members of the three Australian professional accounting bodies who undertake insolvency services have been significantly updated in APES 330. The standard stipulates that members must determine whether there are threats to their independence prior to accepting an appointment to conduct an insolvency service. APES 330 mandates that members have an obligation to consider prior or existing personal and/or professional relationships with the insolvent entity as these relationships can create actual or perceived threats to the member's independence. Where there are threats to a member's independence which are not trivial or inconsequential, and it is not a circumstance permitted by the standard, then the member must obtain court approval if the member wishes to accept or continue the insolvency service.

APES 330 prohibits members from providing advice to an insolvent entity as well as the insolvent entity's directors in a personal capacity. Members are also prohibited from accepting an insolvency service which results in payment of referral or recurring commissions, spotters' fees, or any other arrangements that restrict the proper exercise of the member's judgement.

APES 330 includes a mandatory requirement that a member shall provide a Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities which considers the following matters in respect of the proposed insolvency service:

- an assessment of actual or perceived threats;
- disclosure of prior business relationships;
- disclosure of prior professional services; and
- a declaration of indemnities.

Further, where circumstances change subsequent to the commencement of the insolvency service, the member has a mandatory obligation to update the Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities.

Dealing with property and other assets

The standard includes a prohibition that members or their employees cannot derive a benefit from dealing with the insolvent entity's property or other assets, without the prior approval of the creditors or the court. The only exception to these rules is when the insolvency service is in respect of a retail operation and the relevant assets are also available for sale to the general public at the same price.

Expert Witness obligations

In certain circumstances a member who is providing an insolvency service will be requested to act as an expert witness in respect of the administration. The applicable expert witness obligations are also specified in the standard. The expert witness obligations are based on APESB's professional standard APES 215 Forensic Accounting Services.

Professional Fees and Expenses

The professional obligations in respect of professional fees and expenses in APES 330 have been substantially updated compared to APS 7. APES 330 stipulates that a member can only claim professional fees and expenses that are necessarily incurred for the administration. Where the member's firm provides other professional services to the administration, the standard mandates that these fees must be claimed as professional fees and not as expenses. Further, the member can only draw fees after the proper authority has been obtained from the creditors or the court.

The standard limits the circumstances in which a member can receive contingent fees in respect of an insolvency service. The member is prohibited from entering into a contingent fee arrangement that would impair the member's independence or fiduciary obligations. The member is also required to make specific disclosures to the creditors or the court if entering into a contingent fee arrangement. Further, the standard mandates that (except for controllerships) the member must disclose the methods that can be used to calculate professional fees and justify the chosen method. Where a member receives money prior to acceptance of an appointment to conduct an insolvency service, the member must hold this money in a trust account and obtain appropriate approvals prior to withdrawing the funds.

Documentation and Quality Control

APES 330 mandates that a member must establish quality control policies and procedures in accordance with APES 320 Quality Control for Firms. The member must also maintain appropriate working papers to substantiate compliance with APES 330.

- 3.7 Where an Insolvency Service requires the consideration of matters that are outside the professional expertise of a Member in Public Practice, the Member shall seek expert assistance or advice from a suitably qualified third party, or decline the Insolvency Service. Where the Member relies on the advice of a third party, the Member shall disclose in any reports or other relevant communications the name and qualifications of the third party and the areas in which third party advice has been obtained.
- 3.8 When planning to use the work of a suitably qualified third party, a Member in Public Practice shall assess the professional competence and objectivity of that third party, the appropriateness and reasonableness of the work performed, and the Professional Fees charged.
- 3.9 A Member in Public Practice shall take all reasonable steps to communicate with Entities affected by an Administration in a timely and clear manner as to the insolvency processes and the rights and obligations of the Entities.

4. Professional Independence

- 4.1 Subject to paragraph 4.2, a Member in Public Practice accepting an Appointment or conducting an Administration shall maintain Independence.
- 4.2 A Member in Public Practice shall identify, evaluate and address threats to the Independence of the Member, prior to accepting an Appointment. Where the Member identifies a threat the Member shall not accept the Appointment, unless
- the threat is trivial and inconsequential;
 - the threat arises in circumstances or relationships that are permitted by this Standard; or
 - the Member obtains court approval.
- 4.3 A Member in Public Practice conducting an Administration shall:
- act impartially in the discharge of the Member's duties and responsibilities; and
 - ensure that the Member's personal interests do not conflict with the Member's duty to the creditors.
- 4.4 Trivial or inconsequential relationships are not a bar to acceptance or retention of an Appointment by a Member in Public Practice. The Member is not required to list trivial or inconsequential relationships in the Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities referred to in paragraph 4.14. A relationship is trivial or inconsequential if it is remote, coincidental or insignificant.
- 4.5 The following circumstances and relationships are not considered to create a threat to the Independence of a Member in Public Practice, who is considering accepting or continuing an Appointment:
- (a) the Engagement of the Member or the Member's Firm by a third party, who is not an Associate or Related Entity of an insolvent Entity, to investigate, monitor or advise on the affairs of the insolvent Entity on behalf of the third party; or 4.7 A Member in Public Practice shall not accept an Appointment, other than to act as a Controller, where the Member or the Member's Firm has during the prior two years provided a Professional Service to the insolvent Entity, unless the Professional Service is considered immaterial or is referred to in paragraph 4.5.

4.8 A prior Professional Service is considered immaterial if it:

- was of limited scope;
- will not be subject to review by the Member during the course of the Administration;
- will not affect the Member's ability to comply with the statutory and fiduciary obligations associated with the Administration; and
- does not create threats to the Member's ability to comply with the fundamental principles of the Code when performing the duties of the Administration.

- 4.9 A Member in Public Practice shall not provide advice to both an insolvent Entity and the insolvent Entity's directors in their personal capacity, as the threat created would be so significant that no safeguard could reduce the threat to an acceptable level.
- 4.10 A Member in Public Practice shall not accept an Appointment where the Member or the Member's Firm has provided a Professional Service to the insolvent Entity or any other Entity which:
- has reasonable potential to lead to litigation claims against the Member or the Member's Firm by a stakeholder of the Administration;
 - is material to the Administration; or
 - was related to the structuring of assets of the insolvent Entity in order to avoid the consequences of insolvency, even if that advice was provided at a time when the Entity was solvent.
- 4.11 A Member in Public Practice shall not provide any Inducement to any Entity to secure an Appointment for the Member or to secure or prevent the Appointment or nomination of another person.
- 4.12 A Member in Public Practice shall not accept an Appointment or perform an Administration that involves:
- (a) referral or other commissions, or monetary or non-monetary benefits;
 - (b) spotter's fees;
 - (c) understandings or requirements that work in the Administration will be given to a referrer; or
 - (d) any other such arrangements that restrict the proper exercise of the Member's judgement and duties.
- 4.13 A Member in Public Practice shall provide a Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities in respect of an Insolvency Service (excluding an Appointment as a Controller). The Member shall provide the Declaration in the first communication to the creditors and table it at the first meeting of the creditors.
- 4.14 A Member in Public Practice shall include the following in the Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities:
- a declaration that the Member has undertaken an evaluation of the significance of any threats to Independence and that the Member determined that the Member is independent for the purpose of accepting the Appointment in accordance with the requirements of the relevant legislation and this Standard;
 - a declaration setting out all relationships the Member or the Member's Firm has had in the preceding two years with:
 - the insolvent Entity;
 - an Associate or Related Entity of the insolvent Entity;
 - a former appointee of the insolvent Entity; or
 - a person who has a charge over the whole or substantially the whole of the insolvent Entity's property and other assets;and the reasons why these relationships, if any, do not result in a conflict of interest or duty;
 - a declaration of prior Professional Services provided to the insolvent Entity, including the nature of the Professional Services and the reasons why those Professional Services do not create threats to the Independence of the Member or the work to be performed or duties required under the proposed Appointment;

- a declaration that there are no other known prior Professional Services or other relationships that require disclosure; and
- a declaration of indemnities (other than statutory indemnities) including the identity of each indemnifier and the extent and nature of each indemnity, including any indemnities in respect of the Member's Professional Fees or Expenses.

4.15 When circumstances or relationships giving rise to a threat to Independence are identified after the commencement of an Administration, a Member in Public Practice shall evaluate that threat and:

- a) continue performing the Administration if the Member determines that the threat would not have precluded the Member from accepting the Appointment had the threat been identified prior to the commencement of the Appointment. The Member shall amend the Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities and send it to all the creditors; or
- b) where the threat to the Independence of the Member would have precluded the Member from accepting the Appointment had the threat been identified prior to the commencement of the Appointment, the Member shall notify the court, all creditors and regulatory authorities as appropriate of the following:
 - the nature of the threat;
 - the key facts and circumstances;
 - reasons why the circumstances or relationships giving rise to the threat were not identified prior to acceptance of the Appointment;
 - the potential impact on the Independence of the Member;
 - the status of the Administration;
 - the costs of ceasing and transferring the Appointment; and
 - Professional Fees and Expenses billed and any outstanding amounts; and
- c) in the circumstances described in paragraph 4.15 (b), apply to the court to either continue or resign from the Appointment.

4.16 Where a Member in Public Practice becomes aware that the Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities is out of date or inaccurate, the Member shall update the Declaration and provide it to the creditors or the Committee with the next communication and table it at the next meeting of the creditors or the Committee.

4.17 Where a Member in Public Practice is requested by an insolvent Entity, its directors or its creditors to consent to an Appointment to replace another person who has commenced the Administration, and the Member intends to agree to the request, the Member shall:

- (a) give reasonable notice to the other person being not less than one business day prior to the meeting of creditors, except when the request is received within one business day before that meeting;
- (b) not solicit proxies directly or indirectly and shall act, and be seen to act, in the creditors' interests;
- (c) provide a Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities containing the information required by paragraph 4.14 at the meeting where the creditors decide whether to replace the other person; and

- (d) disclose to the creditors the basis on which the Member proposes to charge Professional Fees and details of the Member's relationship with the Entity nominating the Member for the Appointment.

4.18 A Member in Public Practice should be aware that disclosure of matters in a Declaration of Independence and Relevant Relationships and Indemnities, and the tabling of such Declaration at a meeting of creditors, will not prevent a finding by a court, regulator or a professional body that a Member has breached the requirements of this Standard or the relevant law.

5. Professional Engagement matters

5.1 A Member in Public Practice who has accepted an Appointment is not required to provide an engagement document in accordance with APES 305 Terms of Engagement.

6. Dealings with property and other assets

6.1 A Firm which provides Insolvency Services shall establish policies and procedures which prohibit the Firm, its Partners and employees, and the Close and Immediate Families, Controlled and Associated Entities of the Firm's Partners and employees from acquiring or deriving a benefit from dealing with any assets including property which comes under the control of a Partner or employee due to an Appointment, without obtaining the prior approval of the court.

- (a) the scope of work performed by the Member;
- (b) any limitations on the scope of work performed;
- (c) details of the Member's training, study and experience that are relevant to the matters on which the Member is providing expert evidence;
- (d) the relationships, if any, the Member or the Member's Firm has with any of the parties to the proceedings that may create a threat or a perceived threat to the Member's obligation to comply with the fundamental principles of the Code or the Member's paramount duty to the court, and any appropriate safeguards implemented;
- (e) the extent, if any, of reliance by the Member on the work of others;
- (f) the opinions formed by the Member;

- (k) where applicable, that the Member's opinion is subject to the veracity of another person's report upon which the Member's Witness Report is based;
- (l) the reasoning by which the Member formed the opinions, including an explanation of any method employed and the reasons why that method was chosen;
- (m) a list of all documents and sources of information relied upon in the preparation of the Witness Report; and
- (n) any restrictions on the use of the Witness Report.
