APESB issues revised APES 315 Compilation of Financial Information

Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board Limited (APESB) today announced the issue of the revised APES 315 Compilation of Financial Information (APES 315) to replace the existing APES 315 (Issued March 2017).

The key changes in the revised APES 315 consist of:

- Revisions to reflect the restructured APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code), issued in November 2018;
- Incorporating a requirement for Members to comply with the responding to Non-compliance with Laws and Regulations (NOCLAR) provisions in the Code; and
- Providing a cross reference to relevant guidance in APES GN 30 Outsourced Services for Members who outsource work or engages a third party in a compilation engagement.

Please refer to Appendix 1 of this technical update for details of all the revisions. The revised APES 315 will be effective for engagements commencing on or after 1 January 2020 with early adoption permitted.

APESB has incorporated the following interactive PDF features within the revised APES 315:

- Bookmark tab section for contents page;
- Dynamic links to sections and paragraphs;
- Pop-up definitions upon mouse rollover for defined terms; and
- Links to external websites.

The revised standard is available from APESB's website: www.apesb.org.au

Appendix 1

Revision to APES 315 (Issued March 2017)

Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board Limited (APESB) has approved the following revisions to APES 315 Compilation of Financial Information which was originally issued in July 2008 and revised in November 2009, February 2015 and March 2017 (extant APES 315).

Paragraph Reference	Revisions
1.2	Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board Limited (APESB) issues has revised professional standard APES 315 Compilation of Financial Information (the Standard) , which is effective for Engagements to Compile Financial Information commencing on or after 1 July 2017 January 2020 and supersedes APES 315 issued in March 2017. Earlier adoption of this Standard is permitted.
1.5	Members in Public Practice practising outside of Australia shall follow the provisions requirements of APES 315 to the extent to which they are not prevented from so doing by specific requirements of local laws and/or regulations.
1.6	Members in Public Practice shall be familiar comply with relevant other applicable Professional Standards and be familiar with relevant guidance notes when providing performing Professional Services. All Members shall comply with the fundamental principles outlined in the Code.
1.9	In applying the requirements outlined in APES 315, Members in Public Practice should be guided not merely by the words but also by the spirit of the this Standard and the Code.
1.11	This Standard is directed towards Members in Public Practice. However, Members in Business should apply this Standard and its principles to the extent practicable when they compile information for their employers, especially in respect of regulatory reporting requirements and Compilation Reports prepared under ASIC Corporations (Audit Relief) Instrument) 2016/784. ¹
Footnote 1	ASIC Corporations (Audit Relief) Instrument) 2016/784 supersedes ASIC Class Order CO 98/1417 Audit relief for proprietary companies.
2	Defined terms are shown in the body of the Standard in title case. For the purpose of this Standard:
2	Assurance Engagement means an Engagement in which a Member in Public Practice aims to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence in order to express a conclusion designed to enhance the degree of confidence of the intended users other than the responsible party about the subject matter information (that is, the outcome of the measurement or evaluation of an underlying subject matter against criteria). This includes an Engagement in accordance with the Framework for Assurance Engagements issued by the AUASB or in accordance with specific relevant standards, such as International Standards on Auditing, for Assurance Engagements. (For guidance on Assurance Engagements, see the Framework for Assurance Engagements issued by the AUASB. The Framework for Assurance Engagements describes the elements and objectives of an Assurance Engagement and identifies Engagements to which Australian Auditing Standards (ASAs), Standards on Review Engagements (ASREs)

Paragraph Reference	Revisions
	and Standards on Assurance Engagements (ASAEs) apply.)
2	Code means APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) .
2	Engagement means an agreement, whether Written in Writing or otherwise, between a Member in Public Practice and a Client relating to the provision of Professional Services by a Member in Public Practice. However, consultations with a prospective Client prior to such agreement are not part of an Engagement.
2	Engagement Document means the document (i.e. letter, agreement or any other appropriate means) in which the Terms of Engagement are specified in a Written form Writing .
2	Financial Statements means a structured representation of historical or prospective financial information, including related notes, intended to communicate an entity's economic resources or obligations at a point in time or the changes therein for a period of time in accordance with a financial reporting framework. The related notes ordinarily comprise a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. The term can relate to a complete set of Financial Statements, but it can also refer to a single Financial Statement, for example, a statement of financial position or a statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income and related explanatory notes. The requirements of the financial reporting framework determine the form and content of the Financial Statements and what constitutes a complete set of Financial Statements. For the purposes of this Standard, financial report is considered to be an equivalent term to Financial Statements.
2	Independence is comprises : (a) Independence of mind - the state of mind that permits the expression of a conclusion without being affected by influences that compromise professional judgement, thereby allowing an individual to act with integrity, and exercise objectivity and professional scepticism. (b) Independence in appearance - the avoidance of facts and circumstances that are so significant that a reasonable and informed third party would be likely to conclude, weighing all the specific facts and circumstances, that a Firm's, or a member of the an Engagement team's member's , integrity, objectivity or professional scepticism has been compromised.
2	Member in Business means a Member employed or engaged working in an executive or non-executive capacity in such areas such as working in an executive or non-executive capacity in such areas such as commerce, industry, service, the public sector, education, the not-for-profit sector, or in regulatory bodies or professional bodies, who might be an employee, contractor, partner, director (executive or non-executive), owner-manager or volunteer a Member contracted by such entities.
2	Member in Public Practice means a Member, irrespective of functional classification (e.g. for example, audit, tax or consulting) in a Firm that provides Professional Services. This term is also used to refer to a Firm of Members in Public Practice and means a practice entity and a participant in that practice entity as defined by the applicable Professional Body.

Paragraph Reference	Revisions
2	Misstatement means a difference between the amount, classification, presentation, or disclosure of a reported item in financial information, and the amount, classification, presentation, or disclosure that is required for the item to be in accordance with the Applicable Financial Reporting Framework. Misstatements can arise from error or fraud. Where the financial information is prepared in accordance with a fair presentation framework, Misstatements also include those adjustments of amounts, classifications, presentation, or disclosures that, in the Member in Public Practice's judgement, are necessary for the financial information to be presented fairly, in all material respects, or to give a true and fair view.
2	Professional Activity means an activity requiring accountancy or related skills undertaken by a Member, including accounting, auditing, taxation, management consulting, and financial management.
2	Those Charged with Governance means the person(s) or organisation(s) (for example, a corporate trustee) with responsibility for overseeing the strategic direction of the entity and obligations related to the accountability of the entity. This includes overseeing the financial reporting process. For some entities in some jurisdictions, Those Charged with Governance may might include management personnel, for example, executive members of a governance board of a private or public sector entity, or an owner-manager.
2	Writing (or Written) means a mode of representing or reproducing words in a visible form, and includes words in an electronic format capable of being converted to printed text.
3.1	Members in Public Practice undertaking Engagements to Compile Financial Information shall comply with Section 100 Introduction and Fundamental Principles Part 1 Complying with the Code, Fundamental Principles and Conceptual Framework of the Code and relevant laws and regulations.
3.2	In accordance with Section 100 Introduction and Fundamental Principles Complying with the Code of the Code, Members in Public Practice shall observe and comply with their Member's Member's public interest obligations when they undertake Engagements to Compile Financial Information.
3.3	Members in Public Practice undertaking Engagements to Compile Financial Information shall maintain professional competence and take due care in the performance of their Member's Member's work in accordance with Subsection 130 113 Professional Competence and Due Care of the Code.
3.6	In accordance with Section 140 Confidentiality of the Code, a A Member in Public Practice who acquires confidential information in the course of an Engagement to Compile Financial Information for a Client shall not use that information for any purpose other than the proper performance of that Engagement comply with Subsection 114 Confidentiality of the Code.

5.1	Subject to the Terms of Engagement, a Member in Public Practice may provide advice to assist a Client to determine the Applicable Financial Reporting Framework. However, the Member should ensure that the Client is aware that it is the Client's responsibility to determine the Applicable Financial Reporting Framework to be adopted, taking into consideration the intended use of the financial information as described in the agreed Terms of Engagement, and the requirements of any applicable law or regulation.
5.5	Where a Member in Public Practice assists the Client with significant judgements regarding amounts or disclosures when undertaking a Compilation Engagement in respect of General Purpose Financial Statements or Special Purpose Financial Statements, the Member shall discuss those judgements with the Client and Those Charged with Governance (if applicable) to ensure that they understand the significant judgements reflected in the Financial Statements and accept their responsibility for those judgements.
6.2	A Member in Public Practice who is engaged to perform a Compilation Engagement should consider the following matters for inclusion in the Engagement Document in addition to the General contents of an Engagement Document of APES 305 Terms of Engagement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the nature of the Engagement including the fact that neither an audit nor a review will be carried out by the Member and that accordingly no assurance will be expressed; (b) the fact that the Engagement cannot be relied upon to disclose errors, illegal acts or other irregularities, for example, fraud or defalcations that may exist; (c) the nature of the information to be supplied by the Client; (d) in respect of prospective financial information, the basis of forecasting and key assumptions provided by the Client; (e) where the Member makes assumptions in forecasts, that these assumptions will be brought to the Client's attention; (f) when undertaking a Compilation Engagement in respect of General Purpose Financial Statements or Special Purpose Financial Statements, a statement that the Client is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the form and content of the financial information in accordance with an Applicable Financial Reporting Framework that is acceptable in view of the intended use and users of the financial information; (ii) the reliability, accuracy and completeness of the accounting records and disclosures provided to the Member; and (iii) the judgements needed in the preparation and presentation of the financial information, including those for which the Member may provide assistance in the course of the Compilation Engagement; (g) the basis of accounting set out in the Applicable Financial Reporting Framework on which the financial information is to be compiled and the fact that it, and any known departures from it, will be disclosed to Those Charged with Governance of the Client; (h) the requirement for General Purpose Financial Statements to be prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards; (i) the form and content of any Compilation Report to be issued; (j) the intended use and distribution of the Compiled Financial
